Transformation agenda: from instability to opportunity for manufacturing and supply chains

Join The Economist Impact for The Transformation agenda: from instability to opportunity for manufacturing and supply chains, which will analyse supply chain disruptions, increasing sanctions, geopolitical tensions, inflation, labour shortages and sky-high fuel costs. Join manufacturing and logistics business leaders to hear from thought-provoking industry experts discussing the opportunities and challenges of today.

THURSDAY 7TH JULY 2022 | 1:00PM – 3:15PM BST | JW MARRIOTT GROSVENOR HOUSE, LONDON

THEMES
- Supply chain disruption - labor shortage, shipping industry under pressure
- Sustainability is a priority, but not without challenges
- Supporting reshoring or nearshoring
- More connected transportation networks
- Industry 4.0 solutions - big data, cyber security, IoT, additive manufacturing
- International cooperation and diversification

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?
- Vice President
- Chief Executive Officer
- Managing Director
- Chief Operating Officer
- Operations Director
- Vice President of Supply Chain
- Procurement Director
- Partner
- Chairman

SPEAKERS

JOHN FERGUSON
Practice lead for globalisation, trade & finance
Economist Impact

DANIEL CARRERA
President, Europe
UPS

INMA MARTINEZ
Co-chair and project lead, AI in agriculture and farming
The Global Partnership on Artificial Intelligence (GPAI), an OECD and G7 initiative for AI.

WHY ATTEND
- Learn best practices and key information from thought-provoking speakers
- Network with senior level peers from across the financial services industry
- Discuss and debate the challenges and opportunities affecting the industry

Request your complimentary access here

Programmed by:

Sponsored by:

Economist Impact

EDB Bahrain
Economic Development Board